Radtke is in trouble again. After the running of the May Stakes, which he wen with Paul Rainey's Toots Mook, the stewards of the meeting, Andrew Miller, p J Dayer and J. G. Follansbee, suspended the boy for the rest of the Gravesend meeting and also inducted a fine of $200 for "incorrigi-ble behavior at the post and rough riding." The stewards took this action after hearing The stewards took this action after hearing a report from Starter Cassidy. It was said that Radtke had used insolent language to Cassidy and had also used his whip on the noses of several horses that stood within noses of several noises that stood within reach of him. He was also accused of foul tactics after the start in which Arklista was one of the sufferers. Radtke has been re-peatedly suspended by the starter for disobedience. The boy, it is said, is suffering from a severe attack of self-importance; but at the same time there are many persons who believe that he has been a victim of discrimination. The penalty inflicted yesterday was pronounced entirely too severe by numerrimen who declared that it might result in the withdrawal of the Raineys, who purchased Radtke's contract for $25,000, from the turf. It has been common gossip for some ime that the Raineys were somewhat ruffled because of the treatment accorded to their jockey, so that this latest set down may serve as a sort of last straw. Jockey Miller has also been guilty of rough riding of a flagrant pature, but the only punishment he has suffered to date in consequence has been a warn-ing. The rivalry between Miller and Radtke has caused much partisan feeling among horsemen, and it is said openly that Miller has received something of a shade in point of Mr. Dwyer said vesterday that he had personally warned Radtke more than once to the effect that his conduct was contrary to the rules of discipline and that the boy had seen fit to totally disregard the commands of the track officials. Miller is under con-tract to the Newcastle Stable, of which

Andrew Miller is the leading figure.

It was rumored yesterday, by the way that the Newcastle Stable had finally closed a deal with T. J. Gaynor by which the threeyear-old filly Whimsical, by Orlando-Kismet, becomes the stable's property for the conaideration of $25,000. - After the races Thomas that no deal had been made, but he admitted that there had been some negotiations.
Whimsical is named to start in the Broadway Stakes to-day. When she won the Jockey Club Weight for Age Race at Belmont Park many good judges declared that she was in the class with the incomparable Beldame. Gaynor, right after that victory, refused an offer of $20,000 for the filly made to him by unknown parties.

"Miller is a good jockey when he rides a free running horse," said Snapper Garrison yesterday, "but when it comes down to a hard finish he is outclassed by such heady riders as Shaw, Martin and Lyne." Miller, incidentally, is in a bad streak of luck just received a financial scorching that they will Bill Phillips, backed down to 6, in the first ported in the second, was beaten a nose on Logistilla by Accountant in the third, finished in the ruck with Lord of the Forest, also played, in the fourth, came home seventh with Black Mate, a supposed good thing, in Bluestone, a full brother to Blues, also backed, in the sixth, and then won with Varieties in the last event. Radtke, on the other hand, carned off the saddle honors with two winners in five mounts, the others being unplaced.

Hereafter, to avoid disputes as to the en-gagements of jockeys, all managers of riders must sign a printed slip filled out to show that such and such a boy has been engaged to ride for such and such an owner in a certain tace on a certain day. This slip is dated, and the owner engaging a rider has it to show in case there is a wrangle over the jockey's ervices. The Jockey Club put this rule into effect because of a recent dispute between Messrs. Hitchcock and Keene over the services

If Logistilla had won the handicap the ring would have received a severe jarring. The Locohatchee mare opened at 6, but at the last moment 2½ to 1 was the best price on offer. She had a pull in the weights, receiving eighteen pounds from both Tradition and Accountant. It was Tradition's first app earance of the season, and she was hardly ready for the hard struggle to which Accountant subjected her. Both Accountant and Logistilla showed vast improvement over their previous races. Bob Tucker had a $10,000 wager on Accountant and bet the winnings all back on King Henry in the sixth race.

Frank Farrell and his friends lost heavily on Keator and Arklirta, both of whom were not handled in Lyne's usually clever style.
Toots Mook carried a heavy stable commission, while Dave Gideon's Prince Frederick went to the post well backed by the veteran Stakes were Ridicule, Refugee, Cleophus, George Keene, A. N. B., Trumpet, The Re-gent, Delagoa, W. R. Condon, John F. and Belcast, by Belvidere-Lucasta, who was claimed out of the fifth race by F. W. Seeley, owner of Black Mate, for $1,860. If Judge Post, who is named for a well known racing official, had won this race Newton Bennington would have pocketed a fat roll Judge Post, who saw his namesake run second was delighted with the colt's showing, par-ticularly as he backed him to show. E. R. Thomas and Sydney Paget won a handsome bet on Mexican Silver, who is one of the consistent two-year-olds in the plater cked in this event. Col. Ruppert and Hot Toddy were equal favorites in the last race. The former ran in the colors of J. A. Wernberg, whose horses were formerly trained by J. J. McCafferty, but are now in the hands of F. B. Van Meter. The Western crowd backed Varieties off the board at the last moment and howled for joy

Jack McGuinness, who has been very fortunate with long shots ridden by Notter lately, and a bet across the board on Water Tank, a of to 1 s jot, who rar second to Trots Mook, and also cashed on Moonshine, a 20 to 1 shot, who beat King Henry in the sixth event. Blue Stone, a three-year-old colt by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II., a full brother to Blues and Blue Girl, made his first bow in this event and with Miller up was backed from 10 down to 5, but he ran a poor race.

There was as much as 10 to 1 against Arklir ta in som e of the books when thespeculation in the May Stakes began, but there was such a desire to back the Farrell colt that he close: at 3.

ORDERS FOR COMBINED CRUISE.

wanhaka Corinthian and Corinthian Clubs. Fleet Captain B. M. Whitlock has just made public Commodore Daniel G. Reid's general orders No. 2, which relate to the cruise of the Atlantic, Seawarhaka Corinthian and Corin-thian of Philadelphia yacht clubs. His orders are issued to the yachts of the Atlantic club, and Commodore Benedict and Commodore Clark will issue orders to their fleets. The yachts are to rendezvous at Oyster Bay Harbor at or before 5 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, July 14. The orders say Cruise in company with the fleets of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club and the Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia seawannaka Corintiam racht Chib and the Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia will be made to the eastward, beginning Monday, July 16, and the port named below visited on the dates specified, unless notice to the contrary is published by the regatta committees of the three clubs under whose direction the port to port runs will be made, and who will issue due notice as to the rules to be observed by competing yachts.

"The three fleets will cruise as a unit, the command being assumed in turn by the commodore of each club, who will display the code signal F. I. while the fleet is subject to his orders.

"As the cruise promises to be of unusual interest in racing and other features captains are requested to make every possible effort to participate."

The runs are as follows: July 16, Oyster Ray to Morris Cove: July 17, Morris Cove to New London: July 18, New London to Sheiter Island; July 19, small boat races at Sheiter Island; July 20, Shelter Island to Newport.

YACHTS RACE ROUND BERMUDA. Tameriane Beaten by the Gauntlet on Time Allowance-One Boat Sinks.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 8.—Seventeen yachts took part to-day in the race around the island, a distance of forty-five miles, for cups presented by the Bermuda Yacht for cups presented by the Bermuda Yacht Cub. There was a strong breeze at the start, but it moderated in the afternoon. The pilot yacht Isoldt, length, 59 feet, crossed the finishing line at 4:23:35. Frank Mater's Tamerlane, the winner of the race from New York for the Lipton cup, finished at 4:55:20. The Dainty, length, 38 feet, sailed by Capt. Smith, finished at 4:02:02 and Mr. Robinson's Gauntlet, accond in the Lipton cup face, at 5:58:30. The Gauntlet won a Yacht Cub cup from the Tamerlane by seven minutes on time allowance. The yacht Battleaxe sank. The race caused great excitement.

The old Cup defender Vigilant, built in 1803 meet the first Valkyrie that visited these waters, is in fine racing trim and this season will sail against the British built yawl Sybarita, owned by W. Gould Brokaw. The Vigilant was purchased last winter by William E. was purchased last winter by William E. Iselin and has been fitted out at New London, where she has been faving some tuning up spins. She sailed a few trials against the schooner Elmina, owned by F. F. Brewster. A set of hollow spruce topsail spars has been brift for the Vigilant by the Fraser Hellow spar and Boat Company of Greenport and delivered. This firm has made a hollow mast, gaff and topsail spars for the new racing sloop Effort, which has been built for F. M. Smith from designs by Henry J. Gielow.

Paul J. Hainey's Toots Mook, it to S favorite, with Radike up, won the May Stakes for three-year-olds, about six furiongs. Stother Frank showed the way for nearly half a mile, after which Toots Mook went to the front and won by a length and a half in 1:10. Water Tank, a 60 to 1 shot, closed with a powerful ruch and noticed the place from Frank J. Parrell's Arklirts, backed down to 7 to 2, by half a length. The latter, who beat Brother Frank a head, received a bad ride from Lyne, who did not seem to overexert himself after he got away from the post in good shape.

Lyne was also criticised for his handling of Farrell's Kentor, 7 to 5 favorite, in the first race, at about six furlongs. Willie Shaw, who rode A. Shields's Diamond, 4 to 1, set a tilling pace for Kentor from the outset. When it came down to a skilful finish Lyne showed unmistakable weakness and Shaw made him look cheap, for Diamond won by a head, with Reator two lengths before Emergency, 10 to 1. The time was 1:00 4-5.

In a close finish August Belmont's Okenite, coupled with Curriculum at 11 to 5, favorite, came from behind and lasted long enough to win the second race, for two-year-old fillies and geldings, five furlongs, by a nose. Garner made a game rush with H. P. Whitney's Killieerankie, backed down to s, and would have won in another jump. Stable's Clare Russell, coupled with Hyperbole at 3 to 1, second choice, stopped in the stretch and fluished third, a Jength and a half back. Curriculum feil at the head of the stretch but J. Jones was unburt. The race was run in 1.02.

Sydney Paget's Mexican Silver, 3 to 1, second choice, made all the pace in the fifth event, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, and hung on with enough gameness to heat Fred Burlew's Judge Post, a 10 to 1 shot, by a whisker in 1.08 2-5. A length and a half back J. L. Holland's Kilter, 25 to 1, nosed Clements, 6 to 1, out of third money.

W. H. Brown's King Henry, 2 to 1 favorite, in the sixth race, at a mile and seventy yards, got off poorly and was severely interfered with on the lower turn. Martin persevered, however, and soon made up the lost ground, but the Sir Dixon colt did not possess sufficient stamina to nail T. L. Watts's Moonthe start, the latter winning by a neck in 1464-5. H. B. Duryea's Royal sceptre, 4 to 1, was eight lengths back, beating Bayonet, 4 to 1, by a head.

Miller rode his only winner of the day when he took the last race, for platers, about six furlongs, with James Curtis's Varieties, 7 to 2, by a couple of lengths in 1:10 3-3. Hot Toddy, 3 to 1, favorite, got a weak ride, yet ran second two lengths before Melbourne Nominee, 50 to 1. The summaries:

The United States National Lawn Tennis Association has yielded to public opinion in appointing a rauking committee at the start of the season instead of waiting until sifer all the tournaments have been played. The committee as appointed are: Robert H. Carleton, Crescent A. C.: R. H. Miles, Qrange: A. L. Hoskins, Beimont C. C., Philadelphia. These men have already started their work for the season, with the tournament of the New York L. T. C. They thus will be able to do much more satisfactory work. Hoskins was one of the committee of selection to bick the international team.

Morristown, N. J., June 8.—The tennis committee of the Morristown Field Club has just completed the final arrangements for the New Jersey State championship tournament, which is to be held on the Field club's dirt courts, June 18 to 25. The events will consist of men's championship singles, men's championship doubles and women's championship singles. F. G. Anderson, last year's champion, will defend his title. The entries close on June 15. An open mixed doubles tournament has been arranged, to be played June 11 to 16. The entries for this event close on Saturday.

Americans Take Doubles From Australians

in Davis Cup Preliminary. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. NEWFORT, Wales, June 8.—The American lawn tennis team to-day won the doubles in the preliminary round for the Davis International Challenze Cup. Raymond D. Little and Holcombe Ward represented America, and they defeated L. O. Poidevin and A. F. Wilding, the Australasian representatives, three sets to love. The score was 7-5, 6-2, 6-4.

The Americans beat the Australians by their superior combination, greater skill and greater severity. Ward's quarter work and service were striking factors in the American success. He did not lose a single game of his own delivery. Little lost two. The Australians showed fine form now and then, but the Americans showed keener judgment. Their play can be described as intellectual. Having won the doubles and one of the singles, the Americans must capture only one of the two remaining matches in singles against the Australians in order to challenge the Englishmen for the trophy. In these two matches Ward will meet Wilding and Little will compete with Poidevin.

day by cutting loose with a batting and scoring raily in the sixth inning. The score was 3 to 1 against them when Casey led off in the sixth with a two baser. He hoofed it to third on Batch's fly to Hoelskoetter and came in when Lumley punched a hit to left. Shannon fumbled the hit, which put Lumley on second base. McBride threw Jordan out, but Maioney singled and scored Lumley. Ritter's single put Maloney on third, and after Ritter had stolen second Alperman whisked a stinger to right, which scored Maloney and Ritter. Casey's bunt, Arndt's wild throw of the same and Jordan's single gave the Brooklyns a run in the first inning. St. Louis scored once in the first on a base on balls, a sacrifice, a second out and Alperman's error. Shannon skipped around in the third on a single, Casey's wild throw of Smoot's bunt and Beckley's fly to Maloney. Arndt's double and Hoelskoetter's single gave the Cardinals their tally in the fifth. CHICAGO, June 8.—The New York Americans had little trouble in crushing the White Sox this afternoon, although Jones used three pitchers in the attempt to turn the tide. Griffith's men played the better ball in every way and won with ease. In the second inning Keller led off with a single and White threw Conroy s bunt astray. Chase, Williams and Delehanty all soaked the ball, and three runs were scored in the inning. Chase collided with Sullivan and the latter was knocked senseless, retiring from the game with numerous bruises. The Sox made a plucky stab for the game in the opening stanza. Hahn and Joss hit safe, two runs scored, but the Sox were never again able to see the plate. Chesbro held them firmly to the close. In the third Laporte singled, Williams walked and both arrived on Hoffman's two bagger. The score:

The admirers of Childe Harold Chase declare that he has every other first baseman in the business beaten. That is putting it rather strongly, considering that baseball has a Davis, a McGann, a Chance and a Donahue. But one thing is sure, there is a dash, magnetism and gracefulness about Chase's play that no other first basemen possesses And at making the most of his amanings in running bases he has few equals.
